SPOKANE, Wash., July 18 .- Every voter m Washington, and it is estimated there are 320,000, will receive from the Secreof State in the near future copies of the proposed prohibition law to be voted on this fall, together with arguments by ibitionists in favor of the pro posed law and arguments against it by

To get these documents before the peo ole the statutes provide that election off cers shall file lists of voters in the State etth the Secretary of State. This expense, together with printing, postage and other expenses to get the measure before the voters, has been roughly estimated at

Under the initiative amendment act the on forces have the right to file two arguments in favor of the proposed law, provided these arguments are filed within ten days of the date of filing the prohibition petition. They filed the prohibition petition in Olympia on June 16 and on June 25 filed one argument in favor

The law also provides that within twenty days after the filing of the prohibition three arguments against the proposed On July 3 the Brewers Association of the Northwest, Louis Hemrich president, filed the first protest argument of the opponents of Statewide prohibition.
